

"Empathiciety"* by Joseph D. Smith

Empathiciety is the belief or philosophy that only emotions exist and thus emanate within reality as physical and mental expressions.

The physical world is just a projection of illusions created by our emotions, projected outward and also while simultaneously projected inward.

The Universe is only an expression of our emotions, which our emotions are the greatest gift from God!